Adair's Wilderness Lodge is located in the Walton Lake Anderson Brook region of Sussex, New Brunswick, Canada. They are a New Brunswick licensed outfitter, and are qualified, experienced and bonded. Check out their website at www.adairswlodge.com Hunters will be located in elevated tree blinds and guides will be in the area at all times. Hunts will be in the afternoon and evenings. You will be picked up each evening after hunting. Taxidermist available in the area. Export CITES permits are available on site.

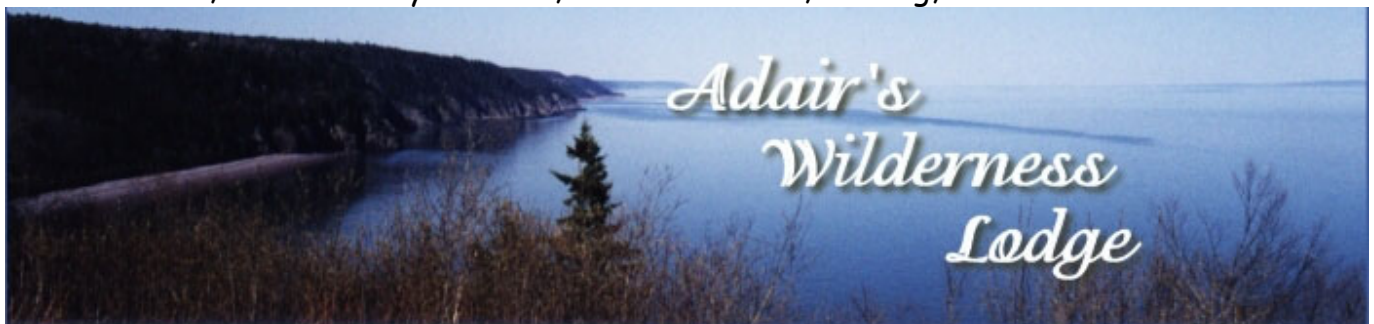

Mornings will be available for scenic side trips and fishing for speckled trout on a natural lake never before open to the public. Fishing equipment will be available or bring your own. Casting practice and instruction will be available for those desiring it. Check out the website for New Brunswick Tourist Association at www.TourismNewBrunswick.ca

BEAR HUNT WORKSHOP FEE $1200 (US) Fee includes room and board, sighting in of rifles, practice with rifles or bows, elevated blinds and a hunting license for one black bear. Also included will be fishing opportunities for speckled trout, fly casting instruction, and side trips to Hopewell Rocks, the Bay of Fundy Trail, and scenic fishing villages. Canoeing and hiking will also be available. Airfare is not included in this price. A Canadian fishing license ($34.50 US) will be required to fish and not included in the registration fee.

The accommodations will include 2 bedroom cabins with queen size beds and one larger cabin with queen beds. All linens will be included. Meals will be served in a community dining room and prepared at the lodge.

Participants are expected to bring THEIR OWN RIFLE OR BOW, AMMUNITION, CAMOFLAUGE CLOTHING and PROOF OF PREVIOUS HUNTING LICENSE, HUNTER SAFETY CARD OR BOW HUNTER'S EDUCATION CERTIFICATE. If you do not have a Bow Hunter's Educ. certificate, a "challenge test" can be given at the Lodge. Clothing should include rain gear, boots, a hat and both long and short sleeve shirts and a jacket. A head net or bug suit is advisable. Weather can be changeable at this time of year.

THIS WORKSHOP WILL BE LIMITED TO THE FIRST EIGHT WOMEN THAT SIGN UP. A non-refundable deposit of $300 (US) will be required at that time. The remainder of the fee will be due upon arrival. CHECKS SHOULD BE WRITTEN TO: ADAIR'S WILDERNESS LODGE and sent to Michigan Department of Natural Resources, Education and Outreach, Attention: Lynn Marla, P.O. Box 30745, Lansing, MI 48909

NON-HUNTER INCLUDED

There will also be 8 spots available for non-hunting women. The cost will be $500 (US) and that will cover room and board (airfare not included). The activities for the non-hunting women will include all trips, fishing, canoeing and hiking (everything except the bear hunt). A fishing license is required for all who plan to fish and is not included in the price. The non-refundable deposit for the non-hunting woman is $300 (US) paid in advance. Arrangements can be made with Adair's Lodge should you be unable to attend.
